The France Passion app: the essential addition to the Guide!

You are unanimous in telling us that the app is the essential addition to the Guide!

Take advantage of its new features, including the very practical keyword search, which complements the search by town or postcode. "Cheese", "Auvergne", "Alsace wine" or "Domaine du...": search for any word in this section and go on an adventure!

To take advantage of this, update your App without delay.

Where are we going to sleep tonight?

For over 30 years, we have been helping to create friendships between you, as motorhome owners, and the rural world. Meet our hosts, who are committed to welcoming you with the France Passion 2023 Guide:

Your constantly changing welcome network...

Every year, our team puts all its energy into looking for new stopovers. And convincing families of producers to welcome "strangers" into their homes is no easy task...

Learn about the new stopovers in your 2023 guide and on the App, and make sure that the stopovers from previous years are still included: some participants cease trading, and some estates change ownership.

Let us respect their decision and their peace and quiet!

The FEFI is still growing!

Italy has just joined the European Invitation Formula Federation (FEFI), which now brings together 10 European networks based on the France Passion model in Spain, Great Britain and Ireland, Switzerland, Germany, Sweden, Denmark, Austria and Norway.

Happiness is in the countryside, all over Europe!

"We had a great time with our hosts during the goat milking. The breeder had us taste freshly-milked milk with honey: it was a treat. Thank you to them for sharing the love of their job with us." - Florence E.

"We are starting travelling with our motorhome and, thanks to France Passion, we have already had two great encounters." Jean-Pierre B.

"In our first great experience the – sometimes remote – stopovers were easy to find with the very reliable information. Committed, smiling hosts and the opportunity to taste their produce." Evelyne H.

But who is behind "the France Passion team"?

Our small team is made up of 8 enthusiasts: alongside Jeanine, Françoise, Michèle, Alexandra, Didier and Marc, Florence and Nathalie joined "the family" this year.

Other than at exhibitions, you rarely have the opportunity to meet us. You should know that everyone puts all their heart and energy into keeping your network alive.

With you, we warmly thank the farmers, breeders and winemakers who make our stopover network possible!
